LOYOLA HOSTS SOCCER NATIONALS

WARRIORS PREPARE TO DEFEND TITLE

The Loyola Soccer Warriors will defend their Canadian Intercollegiate Soccer Championship this Friday, Saturday and Sunday at the Loyola Athletic Complex. Games are scheduled for 10:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. on each day with the National Final slated for 1:30 p.m. on Sunday.

The Warriors, who captured the coveted crown with a 4-3 overtime victory over the University of Alberta last year in St. John's, Newfoundland, once again swept through the Q.U.A.A. season undefeated (7-0-1), outscoring the opposition 53 goals to a mere 5. This brings to 58 Loyola's phenomenal streak of consecutive league games without a loss. Their last setback in league play took place way back in 1967. This year's Q.U.A.A. title is the eighth straight captured by the Soccer Warriors.

Other conference champions from across Canada who will participate in this weekend's event include Dalhousie University (A.I.A.A. champions), University of Manitoba (G.P.A.C.), University of B.C. (C.W.U.A.A.) and either York University or Mc Master University (O.U.A.A.). York and Mc Master playoff on Tuesday to determine the Ontario representative.

The 1974 edition of the Warriors will open defense of their National title on Friday afternoon, November 8, at 1:30 p.m. against the Ontario Champion. Should they emerge victorious, they will advance to the National final on Sunday at 1:30 p.m.

Loyola Coach Harry Hus will be relying heavily on high scorers Mark Sosnowski Tony Madioiu and Jim Corsi to provide the needed five-power. Other Warrior standouts include goalie Wally Smith and sweeper Mike Reynolds.
